Liturgical Celebrations

Throughout November, we will pray for the Holy Souls in Purgatory. This prayer is a powerful way to pray for those who have passed:

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.

May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

Greetings Parents!

I hope this finds you well on this rainy Sunday afternoon! Let's pray that the sky lets all the rain out today so that we can enjoy a sunny and happy Halloween this Tuesday!

I would like to review our Halloween schedule with you, but first, I'd like to thank Lisa Kopcho for planning the 4th annual Halloween Hustle! The event took place Saturday morning with over 90 runners and brought in $3700 for our school. Above all else, the children and participants had a blast. And special thanks to the Mount Holly Township PD for ensuring our safe route!

The Hustle was our happy kick-off to All Hallow's Eve, one of Fr. John's favorite days of the year! Please be sure to check classroom websites for particular classroom schedules, but I do want to remind you of our annual Halloween Parade! We hope you'll join us on Tuesday, October 31st at 1:45pm to see our students in their Halloween finest, marching the perimeter of the building. The parade ends with our students trick-or-treating through the parish house--it's a real treat!

This is, however, a time to be cautious. Many thanks to Mrs. Aaron for sharing this important memo from the NJ ROIC Drug Monitoring Initiative. Please be safe this Halloween and always!

Halloween has Christian roots and serves as a preparation to celebrate the month of the Holy Souls, a very prayerful month in the Church. Wednesday November 1st is the Feast of All Saints, honoring those in Heaven, known and unknown. This month, we will be praying for the Holy Souls in Purgatory.

Finally, please know that this week, we will be practicing an evacuation and relocation drill. We are looking at the weather and keeping in touch with Holbein school to select the best day to accomplish this, but I did want to let you know that this is part of our plan for the week. Once the drill is completed, you will absolutely be informed.

Thank you and may the Sacred Heart of Jesus bless and keep you always!

Sincerely,
Ms. Besheer
